There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play which every candidate for public office in the State of California has a moral obligation to observe and uphold, in order that, after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional right to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

- (1) I SHALL CONDUCT my campaign openly and publicly, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticizing without fear or favor the record and policies of my opponents or political parties that merit this criticism.
- (2) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or his or her personal or family life.
- (3) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any appeal to negative prejudice based on a candidate's actual or perceived race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, age, sexual orientation, sex, including gender identity, or any other characteristic set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code, or association with another person who has any of the actual or perceived characteristics set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code.
- (4) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections, or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters including acts intended to hinder or prevent any eligible person from registering to vote, enrolling to vote, or voting.
- (5) I SHALL NOT coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees.
- (6) I SHALL IMMEDIATELY AND PUBLICLY REPUDIATE support deriving from any individual or group, that resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to the methods and tactics, that I condemn. I shall accept responsibility to take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.
- (7) I SHALL DEFEND AND UPHOLD the right of every qualified American voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process.

Chapter 5. Fair Campaign Practices

Article 1. General Intent

20400. The Legislature declares that the purpose of this chapter is to encourage every candidate for public office in this state to subscribe to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

It is the ultimate intent of the Legislature that every candidate for public office in this state who subscribes to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices will follow the basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play in order that, after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, the citizens of this state may exercise their constitutional right to vote, free from dishonest and unethical practices which tend to prevent the full and free expression of the will of the voters.

The purpose in creating the Code of Fair Campaign practices is to give voter's guideline in determining fair play and to encourage candidates to discuss issues instead of untruths or distortions.

What is your vision for Stockton?

Stockton is an attractive city deserving leadership that reflects its admirable charm. My vision over the next 4 years includes building a Downtown to encompass the city's pride, providing a genuine solution for our homeless, ensure our Fire & Police departments have the tools to respond to risks of our public safety, and transforming our city from a bedroom community to a city with an enhanced quality of life. Every resident, will be granted the resources to work, live, and play in this great city of ours.

How have you been involved in the community?

I have been the voice for many communities in Stockton. From Weston Ranches "big box" issues to fee increases for municipal water supplies, I have repeatedly been on the front lines, so to say, on the disconnect City Hall has with residents. Other community experience comes from my volunteer experience for Veterans organizations, youth STEM teaching, and navigating senior citizens through the public administration process.

Describe any work experience you feel translates to public office.

The Marine Corps produces leaders. No other brand has the cunning ability to consistently develop leaders from every generation. My 7 years of service has prepared me to make decisions that can have outcomes from catastrophic failure to unexpected success. I've honed the skills to manage hundreds of millions in assets, address populations of varying diverse backgrounds, and draft regulation to assure compliance with even the most bureaucratic organization that exist- the federal government.

Why would you make a good Councilmember?

I have attended countless City Council meetings with one objective: advocate solutions that "we, the people" are duly entitled to. This practice has given me the experience needed to promote the reforms to maneuver our city of ours into it rightfully attainable state. I have been apart of determined movements that started from a problem, that turn into hope, that became ideas, and is now respected policy in our City. This is not from my political thought, but rather public engagement and advocating that residents be apart of the political process. That is why I am inclined to develop into a great Councilmember.

Completion of this form is voluntary. It is made available to the public, the newspaper and other media in response to inquiries about candidates.
